How to read the timetable

- Some of the lessons are banded. Banding means that students from two or more classes are divided into groups and have the lesson at the same time, with lesson being conducted at different venues. In Sec 1 and 2, under Full Subject Based Banding, most of lessons are banded.
- When there is banding, additional venues will be shown on the timetable. Check with your subject teacher to find out where the lesson is conducted. You may refer to the classroom layout plan placed at the corridor of each level and signages to help you locate the room.

Examples of banded lessons

- 1 The subject / group of subjects that are banded.
- 2 The venues allocated to the lesson, in addition to the classrooms.
- 3 The teachers who teach the banded lesson.

- 1 Students will attend either G2 Geography or G3 Geography or G1 Math, depending on which subject they are taking.
- 2 The lessons are conducted in the classrooms and in Resource Room 4C.
- 3 The teachers who teach the 5 groups of students.
